

Education Mail Quartile 3

Hi there!

From now on, the Education Committee will be writing the Education Mail. With this Education Mail, we want to inform you with all the news about the study IEM and (I)BA and the news about studying at the University of Twente. In this mail, we are going to discuss a lot of different educational topics.

THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE 2020

Summaries

Since the new module has just started, we want to remind you of the fact that new summaries for the upcoming subjects are needed! So, are you making a new summary during this module, and is there not a sufficient summary on the website yet? Then please submit your summary via e-mail to ec@stress.utwente.nl. You can even earn up to 15 euros depending on the summary.

Coronavirus & lowering BSA

As our government warns us for the upcoming third wave, the coronavirus is not done with us yet. Therefore, all the lectures will still take place online. Luckily, the exception for tests is still there, so they can continue taking place physically! In addition to that, the University decided to lower the BSA regulations. For IBA this has been lowered to 40 ECTs and for IEM to 38 ECTs. For more detailed information you can visit the general information page of your study on Canvas.

Complaints

Since the tasks of the Education Committee are very broad, we can understand that you might forget that we are also here to handle your complaints! So, if you have any complaints during your module, or if you have any complaints regarding online education you can also send a mail to this mail address and we will address it with the correct people.

Study Evenings

Every module the Education Committee is busy with preparing different study evenings for difficult subjects. Even though no physical evenings are allowed right now, we will still continue with the study evenings through Discord. Sadly, we cannot make sure there are snacks present, but we will make sure that there are some TA's present to help you with all the questions that you may have. But there is one little problem: it is difficult for the EC to find out what subjects are difficult for most students. So, if you have a suggestion about a subject that would definitely need a study evening, you can also mail the committee!

Panel meetings

Then, we want to remind you that the panel meetings are coming up. The panel meetings provide the possibility to give feedback to teachers on what you think of your current module. The dates can be found below:

Exam database

Lastly, we want to inform you about the fact that the EC is busy with creating a practice exam database for you. We are debating with the teachers to collect a lot of different practice exams and to place them in one central database. More information on this will follow shortly!

Lots of greetings,

Ralph Sikosek
